

The public viewing and panel discussion on the Nature of Things documentary "Save My Lake" has been postponed. The Manitoba Water Council is planning to host this event in April after the documentary has aired on CBC television.